BACKGROUND

On November 19th, 2021, the victim, Jean Accime, arranged to meet Jerise Richer at an Air BnB located at 7907 Skyview Drive, Orlando, FL to have sexual intercourse. Upon arrival, Jean took off all of his clothing in preparation for the relations he was going to have with Jerise and got in the shower. As Jean exited the shower he was surprised by Amony Robillard who had surreptitiously entered the Air BnB and, pointed two firearms at Jean. Amony began demanding that Jean sit on the bed and started shouting at him. Amony disclosed to Jean that he and Jerise had been working in conjunction with one another to set Jean up. Amony made multiple threats to Jean while pointing these firearms at him, all the while demanding money from him. Amony took video of the entire incident on his cell phone and told Jean that he would disclose the contents of the video if Amony refused to pay him $30,000.00. Amony went as far as to have Jean sign a written contract agreeing to pay Amony $30,000.00. Amony arranged for a notary, identified as Melchy Louis, to come to the Air BnB while Jean was being held against his will and notarize this signed contract. Jerise Richer was present during this entire interaction, and provided various types of assistance to Amony in the process. Amony forced Jean to call his wife, Guerline Demosthene, and had her come to the Air BnB at 7907 Skyview Drive to also sign the contract. Guerline refused to sign the contract, which is when Amony told Jean he could get dressed and leave the Air BnB.

Jean Accime and Amony Robillard were Facebook friends and occasional investment partners prior to this incident. Amony Robillard is a Deputy Sheriff with the Brevard County Sheriff's Office. Consequently, Jean Accime was afraid to report the incident to law enforcement given that a law enforcement officer was the individual who committed the offense against him. Jean decided to reach out to an attorney instead, Edrice Fleurimond, who eventually convinced Jean to make the report to the Orange County Sheriff's Office. Jean made his report and provided his initial sworn statement to the Orange County Sheriff's Office on November 24th, 2021. Edrice Fleurimond is fluent in both Haitian Creole and English and assisted Jean with translating his statement to Deputy Sheriff Eddie Garcia, who took the initial report.

The following was derived from Deputy Sheriff Eddie Garcia's initial report:

"On November 24, 2021, at approximately 1538 hours, I, Deputy Sheriff Eddie Garcia (EID 7845) responded to 2500 West Colonial Drive in reference to a robbery with a firearm. Upon arrival, I met with Jean Accime (victim)."

My investigation revealed the following:

Jean was at the Orange County Sheriff's Office Central Operations building. He was at this location with his attorney, Edrice Fleurimond (other). The information provided by Jean was communicated primarily through his attorney due to a language barrier. Jean spoke Creole and knew very little English. Edrice spoke both languages and translated on his behalf.

Jean advised he knew a woman named Djerise (suspect 2) who he was friends with for approximately 5 months. On November 19, 2021, Djerise invited him to meet her at an Airbnb located at 7907 Skyview Drive. This address had a room separated from the house that had its own room and bathroom like a studio living space. There were two beds in the room separated by a curtain. Jean arrived at the location at approximately 1630 hours. Djerise opened the door and invited him inside. Djerise convinced Jean to get naked on the bed but she did not get undressed. After Jean was undressed, a person came out from behind the curtain. Jean recognized the person as Amony Robillard (suspect 1).

Jean knew Amony for approximately one year. They were friends and met in person on occasion.

Amony was holding a firearm in each hand when he appeared from behind the curtain. One of the firearms was black and the other one was silver. Amony threatened to shoot Jean for meeting with Djerise who he claimed was his girlfriend. Amony threw condoms around the room forced him to drink some liquid which he believed was a male sexual performance enhancing substance. Amony kicked Jean in the chest while he was on the bed and continued to threaten him with the firearms. He force Jean to get up and get his wallet from his pants. Amony made Jean show him the contents of his wallet and took the $200.00 USD that was inside. Amony went to a table in the room where he had a laptop and a printer set up. Amony created a document and forced Jean to sign the document. Jean did not know enough English to be able to read the document but he understood the document as a statement that he would repay approximately $30,000.00 USD.

After Jean signed the document, Amony had some person who claimed to be a notary come in and stamp the document. Amony took a photograph of Jean's Florida Identification Card while in the room. He made Jean stand, sit, and walk around the room while naked and video recorded him. Afterwards, Amony made Jean call his wife, Guerline Demosthene (witness), to come pick him up from the address. Amony did not allow Jean to get dressed so he remained naked when his wife arrived. Amony attempted to force Guerline to sign another separate document but she refused to sign.

Amony did not make an issue with her not signing the document and told them both he had enough with the signature and information he gathered to collect the money. He threatened to release the video of Jean naked and having an affair to people Jean knew if he did not comply with his requests for money. Amony advised he would report Jean for sexual misconduct if he reported the incident to police. Amony allowed Jean to get dressed and let him leave after his wife refused to sign the document. They all left the Airbnb at the same time.

Jean was held captive until approximately 2100 hours.

Jean received messages from Amony requesting different amounts of cash after the incident. Jean was also given deadlines for when he needed to comply with the requests. The nearest deadline was that Jean needed to pay $5,000.00 USD by November 26, 2021. Jean advised Amony contacts Guerline with demands as well.

Jean had messages through WhatsApp which he screenshotted. I sent Jean a link via Axon Citizen to have him upload the photographs to evidence.com.

Jean and Edrice advised Amony is a Law Enforcement Officer, specifically a Sheriff's Deputy, but they were not sure where he worked. Jean showed me a Facebook video of Amony dancing with a young child (possibly his daughter) while in uniform. The Facebook account is under <https://www.facebook.com/robillard.amony>. In one of the photographs, on the shoulder patch, I was able to observe an "RD" prior to "County" which possibly meant he is employed with the Brevard County Sheriff's Office.

It should be noted; Jean believed there were some reasons why Amony would attempt to extort him for money. One reason was that he provided Amony with advice for investing in cryptocurrency, which turned into a poor investment resulting in Amony losing $2000.00 USD. Another reason was that Amony was aware Jean was seeking a loan for around $30,000.00 USD from a financial institution. He believed Amony thought he received the money from the loan. Jean and Amony communicated often through phone messages and Amony was aware of what Jean was doing in his life.

Jean stated he was forced to give Amony $200.00 USD in cash and was forced to send $450.00 USD via CASHAPP while he was in the room.

Jean completed a sworn written statement in Creole. Jean showed me the text messages but I could not read them because they were mostly in Creole. Jean signed a victim confidentiality form and was given a victim's rights pamphlet.

I notified the Night Violent Crimes Squad and Detective Peers (EID 8746) advised they would be following up with the case. "

FOLLOW UP INTERVIEW WITH JEAN ACCIME

Given the sensitive nature of the suspect in this case, I made contact with Jean Accime over the phone to schedule an interview. Jean Accime and his wife agreed to meet with me on November 26th, 2021 at the Orange County Sheriff's Office Central Operations Center at 1500 hours.

Jean had indicated that Amony had been sending him text messages demanding money, corroborating his initial statement. I asked Jean if he could send me copies of these text messages so I could view them and have them translated prior to our interview. Jean agreed and sent me the messages. The messages are all in Haitian Creole and required the assistance of a translator. Detective Mondezy Lindor of the Orange County Sheriff's Office viewed the messages and provided me with the following translation synopsis:

The messages were in reference to Jean Accime being required to pay five thousand dollars to Amony by the end of the week. The suspect tells the victim that he changed his mind and does not wish to honor their previous agreement to which the victim would pay him a thousand dollars a week, till he reached the total amount agreed upon. The suspect tells the victim that he changed his mind and does not wish to wait so long. He informs the victim that he ought to have $5000 by Friday. In one audio message on the thread, the suspect ends the audio by telling the victim that he could have lost his life the other day.

The messages were sent to Jean by the phone number 561-507-9472. Research on various law enforcement databases showed that this phone number was registered to Amony Robillard (See attached photograph).

Jean Accime also sent me a screenshot of the Cash App transaction he said he was forced to make at gunpoint. The screen shot depicts the transaction to an "Amony Robillard" with the Cash App username of $RobillardNegOkap. The transaction is listed as being sent on Friday (November 19th, 2021) at 5:22 PM. Above the Cash App username, there is a photograph of Amony Robillard wearing a white tank top (See attached photograph).

Arrangements were made to have a Haitian Creole speaking detective present (Detective Mondezy Lindor) to assist with translations during the interview. The following is a synopsis of the interview conducted with Jean Accime and was derived from Detective Lindor's supplemental report:

"On Friday, November 26, 2021, I Detective Mondezy Lindor (EID 7241) responded to the Orange County Central Operations station at 2500 West Colonial Drive, to aid with translating for the interview of a victim to a robbery. While at the station, I met with the lead investigator Michael Peers and he allowed me to read the original report.

The lead investigator and I then meet with the victim who was only able to speak and understand Haitian Creole. We started the interview by informing him the seriousness of the charges and request that he tells the whole truth and leave nothing behind. The victim raised his right hand, swearing to tell the truth, and also signed a Waivers and Affidavits form stating that he could be prosecuted for providing false information to law enforcement.

The victim advised that he knew the suspect, Amony Robillard for approximately a year. Both met through the Facebook social media act and found interest in one another in regards to their business interests and investment ideas. Robillard has been to Accime's home on several occasions and has passed by his church in the past.

Accime said that he met another female, by the name of Djerise through Facebook as well and the two have been in communication with one another for the past 5 or 6 months. Accime said that the messages between him and Djerise have been intimate in nature and they have also exchanged explicit photos to one another. Accime and Djerise made plans to meet up and become physically intimate on the date of November 19th, 2021. Accime said that Djerise provided him with the address to an Airbnb in which Accime would arrive after work. Accime left work at approximately 1630 hours and headed to the Airbnb.

Accime said that after he arrived at the Airbnb, he met Djerise at the door and entered the room. Accime described the Airbnb as a small residence to the rear of the address he was initially provided. Accime said that as he entered, the room was dark, appeared to have 2 beds and one section was blocked off by curtains. Accime said that he showered and was leaning on the bed as he was talking to Djerise. Accime had the impression that they were about to become intimate, till Amony came from behind the curtains with two guns pointed at him. Accime said that when Amony approached him with the guns, he became afraid for his life. Accime said that Amony would not let him talk and at one point when he tried to get up, Amony kicked him in the torso, to the bed.

Accime described both guns as semiautomatic pistols. He advised that one gun was black in color and the other pistol was probably gray and slightly smaller than the first. Accime is not familiar with guns and was too frightened to pay attention to the details of the firearms pointed at him.

Amony then forced Accime to drink a traditionally Haitian concoction called "towo" for male enhancements. Amony then forced Accime to eat a "maggii" boullion cube after drinking the towo and placed 5 condoms in front of him while filming him. Accime said that Amony was filming him to show the world through social media that he was paying prostitutes for sex, if Accime did not pay Amony back.

I asked Accime what did he have to pay Amony back for? Accime said that he previously gave Amony a tip to invest in a certain company. Amony took out a lot of money and threw them into the investment Accime suggested; however the company tanked. Accime said that both he and his wife lost some money when the company tanked, but Amony feels like Accime owes him the money he lost because he was the one who suggested that he invest in the company.

Accime said that Amony told him that Djerise is his girlfriend and the some of the times he was communicating with her via Facebook messenger, it was Amony responding back. Amony also said that he was the one who made the reservations for the Airbnb to have Accime there on that date. Accime said that Amony was recording the whole thing through his phone, he still had not been allowed to put his clothes back on, and Djerise was there sitting on the side the whole time. Amony took approximately $200 from Accime's wallet and had him wire $450 to him via Cashapp.

Accime said that Amony then brought out a laptop computer and printer only to print out a contract and force Accime to sign it. The contract was stating that Accime would pay Amony $30,000 through a certain period of time. After being forced to sign the contract once, Accime said that Amony had a notary show up to the scene, watch them both sign another page and sign and notarized the contract. Accime was asked if he was still naked when the notary showed up and he said that he indeed was still naked. At this point, Amony had one gun on his hip and another on the table right next to him. He said that the notary did not ask any questions; he just showed up, notarized the contracts, and left.

Accime described the notary as a young black male whom he believes to be Haitian as well. Accime said that the notary had short hair and wore just a regular shirt along with denim jeans.

Accime said that after the notary left the scene, Amony was not satisfied with just his signature. Amony wanted his wife's signature as well. Amony had Accime call his wife to show up to the scene. After Accime's wife showed up, she was frightened to see her husband in the corner of the room with no clothes on. Amony then tried to get Accime's wife to sign the contract, but she refused to do so. After Acimme's wife refused to sign the contract, Amony let both her and Accime leave, saying that he already has Accime's signature."

CONTROLLED PHONE CALL WITH AMONY ROBILLARD

While interviewing Jean Accime, someone was attempting to call him from the phone number 321-427-1677. Jean was asked if this was Amony and he stated it was Amony's work cell phone. Jean did not answer, but was asked if he would be willing to call back Amony and conduct a controlled phone call. Jean agreed and called Amony back. In the background of the phone call, I could hear a police radio in the background suggesting that the person on the other line was a law enforcement officer. Jean and Amony had a conversation in Haitian Creole, which was translated by Detective Mondezy Lindor. The following was derived from Detective Lindor's supplemental report:

"During the interview, Accime's phone was on "vibration mode" whoever it would repeatedly ring. Accime said this was Amony calling him, trying to get the $5000 for the week. Accime was told to pick up the phone next time Amony called and speak to him as he normally would.

Accime called Amony back and started to talk about their agreement. Accime initially told Amony that he has been trying to get him his money, but out of all his efforts he has not been able to come up with the $5000 for the day. The conversation continued and Amony told Accime that the money is what Accime owes him because he lost all that money with the initial investment. Accime told Amony "you made me sign off on $30,000 without my consent. Did I even owe you $30,000". Amony replied that he discussing the $5000 that Accime owes him right now.

Accime: "$5000! Did I even take $5000 from you?"

Amony: "That's the money you made me lose."

Accime: "Did I take from your hand and make you lose it?"

Amony: "If you're not going to give me my money, just say it and be done with it"

Accime: "You wanted me to give you the money you lost, so bad, that you had to plan that stunt with the young lady and pull that gun out on me?"

Amony: I did it like that because you're an imbecile; you hear me? You're an imbecile and a threat (untrustworthy). You're a threatening (untrustworthy) friend.

Accime: "So even though I'm threatening (untrustworthy); did you had to pull that gun out on me, hit me, humiliate me..."

Amony: "Yo, I don't need to keep talking back and forth with you..."

Accime: "...humiliate me and force me to drink some stuff without my consent. I didn't even know if you hand poisoned that thing"

Amony: "That's something I had to do in front of everyone who was there. If you don't want to do it; you could have done it or not done it. If you did not want to do it, just grab your stuff and let it go..."

Accime: "...so you could kill me? With that gun in your hand while you're making me sign that paper? So you could kill me if I didn't sign it? You had 2 guns in your hands."

Amony: "...listen to me; are you going to listen?"

Accime: "Yes I'm listening"

The conversation continues with Accime and Amony and after Amony starts to get agitated with Accime he finally tells him, "Are you going to give me my money so I can pay the bank, or you're not going to give me my money?"

Amony: "I took a loan out from a bank, thought it would be a good investment"

Accime: "Give me some time. Today is not good for me, you know yesterday was a holiday and with everything else going on; can you give me some time please?"

Amony: "What time is it now?"

Accime: "Can you give me another week please?"

Amony: "No man, give you another week? If I could send you a screen shot of my credit score. Ever since I took out that loan and couldn't pay it. My credit dropped by 600. 600 something. Right now it's finally going back up."

Amony later goes on to tell Accime "find a way to have my money by this afternoon"

Accime: "This afternoon; after I told you I don't have it?"

Amony: "Find a way to give my $5000 this afternoon so I can pay the bank"

The phone call ended shortly after."

AMONY ROBILLARD POSITIVELY ID BY JEAN VIA PHOTO LINEUP

After the controlled call, a photographic lineup utilizing Amony Robillard's Driver's license photograph was created and administered to the victim Jean Accime. Using individuals who were similar to Amony in age, weight, sex, race, and general appearance, Detective Lawyer Cliborne created a sequential photographic lineup (lineup #47784) to present to the victim.

The victim was read the instructions for the photographic lineup, which were then translated into Haitian Creole by Detective Lindor, which are as follows:

"You are being asked to look at a group of photographs. These photographs are in sequential order. You will look at each photograph one at a time and not in any particular order. Take as much time as you need to examine each photograph. If you make an identification, you will be asked to view the remaining photographs. There are some blank photos in the series. This is part of the normal process. You are not obligated to identify anyone. The person of interest may or may not be in the line-up presented. It is just as important to clear innocent persons from suspicion as to identify guilty parties. Individuals presented in these photographs may not appear as they did on the date of the incident. Keep in mind features such as hair styles, facial hair, and an individual's weight are subject to change. Since this is an ongoing investigation, you should not discuss the identification procedures or results. The investigation will continue with or without an identification."

The victim initialed the lineup instructions, indicating that he understood them. I shuffled a series of 8 closed manila folders, 6 containing photographs and 2 containing blank filler pages, and then handed them to the victim. After handing them to the victim, Detective Lindor and I walked out of the room and told Jean to knock on the door when he was finished.

Jean knocked on the door, and Detective Lindor and I entered. Jean had indicated that he made an identification, and that Amony, the individual who robbed him and held him against his will at gunpoint, was depicted in photograph number 2. Photograph #2 was of Amony Robillard's driver's license photograph.

The victim circled and initialed Amony's driver's license photograph. He also initialed the remaining photographs to indicate the fact that he had viewed them. He completed an eyewitness identification affidavit that was attached with this lineup.

INTERVIEW WITH GUERLINE DEMOSTHENE

After Jean was interviewed, Guerline was asked if she would be willing to conduct an interview. Guerline agreed and signed the False Information Affidavit, certifying that the statement she would be making was voluntary and true to the best of her knowledge. Guerline was provided the same warning as Jean, which was that if she knowingly provided false information to Law Enforcement concerning the alleged commission of a crime would be guilty of a misdemeanor. After signing this affidavit, Guerline provided Detectives with a sworn statement, which is summarized as follows:

Guerline Demosthene was working on November 19th, 2021, when she received a phone call from her husband, Jean Accime. Jean told his wife that he needed her help and to respond to 7907 Skyview Drive. Accime's wife Guerline responded and upon her arrival was met by Amony Robillard, who she recognized as one of Jean's friends, and an unknown female at the front door. Robillard told Guerline that he needed her to come inside, and she complied. Robillard guided Guerline to a bedroom and locked the door behind her. Upon entering, Guerline stated that she saw her husband Accime in the corner of the bedroom, completely naked and that Robillard began videoing on his cell phone. Guerline said she was afraid and began asking her husband and Robillard what was going on. Guerline's husband Accime began to speak, and Robillard immediately snapped, shouted profanities at him, and told him he was not to speak. Robillard then explained to Guerline that Accime had him invest in something called "Paytron Pay", which caused him to lose approximately $2,000.00. Because of this, Robillard was demanding that Accime pay him $5,000.00 immediately and asked Guerline for the money. Guerline said she did not have $5,000.00. Robillard asked Guerline to sign the contract which required Accime to pay Robillard $30,000.00. Guerline refused to sign the document. Robillard explained that if Accime did not pay the $5,000.00 immediately, then he would send the video he was taking to all of Accime's church contacts as well as his family. Guerline explained that during this entire interaction, Robillard was preventing her husband Accime from speaking. Robillard had a firearm on his hip and another firearm directly next to where he was sitting on the bed. Guerline stated one firearm was a black semi-automatic pistol and the other a greyish semi-automatic pistol. Robillard pointed out an elixir in the room and said that if Guerline did not arrive in time, that Accime would have drank the full elixir which would have caused him to die. Robillard then explained that had this been the case, he would have gotten rid of Accime's body.

At some point in this interaction, Guerline stated that the Air BnB owner knocked on the door. After a brief conversation, with Amony, the Air BnB owner left. To Guerline's knowledge, the owner never saw Jean being held naked against his will or Amony with any firearms.

After this interaction, Robillard looked toward Accime and told him to get dressed. After getting dressed, Accime and Geurline left the Air BnB in separate vehicles and drove away. Before leaving, Guerline overheard Robillard tell the female Djerise that the silver handgun that was next to Robillard in the bedroom was not even loaded.

ROBILLARD POSITIVELY ID BY GUERLINE VIA PHOTO LINEUP

After the interview with Guerline was concluded, she was shown a photographic lineup utilizing Amony Robillard's Driver's license photograph. Using individuals who were similar to Amony in age, weight, sex, race, and general appearance, Detective Lawyer Cliborne created a sequential photographic lineup (lineup #47784) to present to the Guerline.

Guerline was read the instructions for the photographic lineup, which were then translated into Haitian Creole by Detective Lindor, which are as follows:

"You are being asked to look at a group of photographs. These photographs are in sequential order. You will look at each photograph one at a time and not in any particular order. Take as much time as you need to examine each photograph. If you make an identification, you will be asked to view the remaining photographs. There are some blank photos in the series. This is part of the normal process. You are not obligated to identify anyone. The person of interest may or may not be in the line-up presented. It is just as important to clear innocent persons from suspicion as to identify guilty parties. Individuals presented in these photographs may not appear as they did on the date of the incident. Keep in mind features such as hair styles, facial hair, and an individual's weight are subject to change. Since this is an ongoing investigation, you should not discuss the identification procedures or results. The investigation will continue with or without an identification."

Guerline initialed the lineup instructions, indicating that she understood them. I shuffled a series of 8 closed manila folders, 6 containing photographs and 2 containing blank filler pages, and then handed them to Guerline. After handing them to Guerline, Detective Lindor and I walked out of the room and told Guerline to knock on the door when she was finished.

Guerline knocked on the door, and Detective Lindor and I entered. Guerline had indicated that she made an identification, and that Amony, the individual who demanded she sign a contract agreeing to pay him $30,000.00 and while in the possession of 2 firearms on November 19th, 2021, was depicted in photograph number 2. Photograph #2 was of Amony Robillard's driver's license photograph.

Guerline circled and initialed Amony's driver's license photograph. She also initialed the remaining photographs to indicate the fact that she had viewed them. She completed an eyewitness identification affidavit that was attached with this lineup.

All of the aforementioned interviews, to include the administration of the lineups, were both audio and video recorded. The recordings were uploaded into Evidence.com reference this case number.

Air BnB Review placed by Amony Robillard at 7907 Skyview Dr

Detectives visited the Air BnB website and located a residence that was listed for rent at 7907 Skyview Drive. A review was written on November 19th, 2021, by Amony Robillard. In the review, Amony writes the following:

"Great location, the space was perfect and clean. I would definitely stay here again. We had a very nice time staying here. We were able to get in quickly and easily. Everything was as described and the location was practically near everything you'd need or want to go to. Dali was a great communicator, location not far from the airport, couple minutes with the Mall, couple minutes to the restaurants etc. I give them 5 stars (see attached photograph of the review).

A more detailed search through the Air BnB website shows that the host left a review on Amony as well. The review reads as follows:

"I did not have a good experience with Amony, when I talk to him he is polite, but he does not follow the instructions/rules of the house at all, he is not communicative, and he did not leave the room as clean as possible. One thing that I did not like a little bit is that he showed up at my house two days before checking to see the room without letting me know or asking if he could. In my opinion it is not respectful to do that without ask." (See attached photograph):

Interview with Air BnB owner Dairis Arango

On November 26th, 2021, after the interviews concluded with Jean Accime and his wife Guerline Demosthene, Detective Lawyer Cliborne and Peter Crane went to 7907 Skyview Drive to conduct a follow up investigation. Upon arrival, Detective Cliborne met with the Air BnB owner and conducted an interview with her regarding the incident that occurred on November 19th, 2021. Dairis Arango was able to identify Amony Robillard via a photographic lineup as the individual who was renting out her Air BnB on November 19th, 2021. She provided Detective Cliborne with the reservation details, further suggesting that Amony Robillard was the individual who had rented out her Air BnB on November 19th. Dairis also stated that she had knocked on the door to the Air BnB on November 19th, 2021, because there were too many vehicles blocking the driveway. This statement corroborated what Jean and Guerline mentioned in their statements. Detective Cliborne authored an investigative supplemental report regarding his interaction with Mrs. Arango. The following was derived from this report:

"I responded to 7907 Skyview Drive; which was the location the victim stated the armed robbery occurred. Once I arrived, I noticed a large recreational vehicle (RV) in the driveway of the residence which was determined to be the Airbnb (vacation rental) where the incident took place. I made contact with the RV owner, Dairis Arango (other) and conducted an audio video recorded interview with her. The interview was recorded on Detective P. Crane body worn camera and later uploaded into Evidence.Com. The following is a short synopsis of that interview:

I introduced myself to Mrs. Arango and told her I was conducting a robbery investigation that occurred in her RV on November 19th. I asked Mrs. Arango if she remembered renting her RV out to anyone the week prior to which she almost immediately asked "is this about the cop?" I asked her to elaborate and she proceeded to tell me that she rented her Airbnb RV out to an "Amony" from November 19th - 21st 2021. On November 17th, "Amony" knocked on her door and he was wearing a full police uniform. She stated "Amony" told her that he wanted to check the area out before he checked in; which she stated was weird to her because that has never happened before. According to Mrs. Arango, on the night of the 19th she noticed there were at least three vehicles in her yard and driveway. Both she and her husband, Mr. Arango knocked on the RV door and spoke with "Amony" telling him he could not have that many vehicles blocking the driveway. Ms. Arango did state there were two females that came to the RV during the night.

Mrs. Arango then showed me pictures of the Airbnb reservations from her cellphone. The first picture had the name "Amony Robillard" with a picture of a black male in a green

Brevard County Sheriff's Office uniform with a black duty belt. She then showed me text correspondence through the Airbnb application between Mrs. Arango and Amony Robillard in which she tells Amony that he cannot block the driveway at 1955 hours. I took pictures of all the previous mentioned which were uploaded into Evidence.com via Axon Capture.

I then administered the sequential photographic line up (#47784) to Mrs. Arango. I explained the line-up procedures to Mrs. Arango and then read them to her from the Affidavit of Eyewitness Identification Form. Mrs. Arango initialed the form stating she understood. I shuffled the eight manila envelopes, handed them to her and then myself and Detective Crane walked away telling her to call for us when she was done.

After a few minutes, Mrs. Arango called to us that she was done. She identified Mr. Robillard as the person who rented the Airbnb from November 19th to 21st and the person who opened the door to the RV when she knocked on it at approximately 1955 hours. She completed the sworn statement at the bottom of the Affidavit of Eyewitness Identification with the following, "On the 26 day of Nov, 2021, at approximately 2200 hours, I was shown a photographic line-up (#47784) consisting of 6 photographs, and I identified number #2 as the person who I rent him through Airbnb nov 19-21, 2021. Nov 19 I knock the door around 8pm to ask him to move the cars was visiting to him."

Mrs. Arango circled the number 2, initialed below it and placed the date. She also initialed the top right corner of the remaining five photographs indicating those were the other photographs she was shown. Mrs. Arango signed the Affidavit of Eyewitness Identification form which is attached to this report along with the line-up.

Mrs. Arango verbally swore and affirmed her statement was true and correct and stated she is willing to testify in court.

Mr. Arango informed me that he would cooperate with the investigation and allow me to review and recover surveillance video but stated he did not want to be interviewed or testify in court."

Photographs were taken of the inside of the Air BnB with the owner and renters consent (See attached photographs).

Surveillance video obtained from 7907 Skyview Drive

Mrs. Arango provided Detective Cliborne with the surveillance footage from her Air BnB. The video is only of the outside of the Air BnB, but clearly shows the front door to the trailer that is rented out on the property. I reviewed the video provided to me by Detective Cliborne and noticed that it strongly corroborated the statements and timeline made by Jean and Guerline. Detective Cliborne conducted a detailed review of the surveillance footage. His review was documented in his supplemental report, which reads as follows:

"I downloaded the surveillance video, which begins at 4:49 pm and ends at 9:12 pm. It should be noted the times on the video are approximately two (2) minutes fast. The video was downloaded and placed onto a USB which is attached to this report. The following times/descriptions are of significant importance for this case:

#1 4:44:08 PM- A young, dark skinned black female is seen opening the door to the RV and appears to be speaking with someone out of view. She stands in the doorway with a cell phone in her hand for a few minutes and then backs into the RV closing the door.

#2 4:49:06 PM- The victim is seen driving his tan colored Honda into the driveway and parking next to the RV. The same young female is also seen leaning out of the RV. The victim gets out of his vehicle, grabs a large duffel bag and enters the RV; closing the door behind him.

his right hand in his left pocket turning his body to the left. As he does this, you can clearly see the handle and magazine well of a silver handgun inside his right front pocket. As he turns to enter the RV, you can clearly see the handle and magazine well of a black handgun on his right hip. Mr. Robillard then opens the RV door slowly but not all the way and appears to quietly enter the RV. The door is then seen closing slowly.

#4 5:08:14 PM- *A heavy set black male, bald, wearing an orange and blue collared shirt, blue jean pants and brown shoes is seen walking into the driveway. The black male is holding a cell phone in his hand and appears to be lost as he is walking back and forth in the driveway. He then places a covid style mask on his face and stands in the drive way. #5 5:27:06 PM- The door to the RV opens and the young black female walks out, closing the door behind her. She appears to have car keys in her hand and walks towards Mr. Robillards vehicle. She is then seen walking towards the RV carrying a large black printer with paper sticking out of it. She opens the door to the RV and walks back inside closing the door behind her. The same young female is then seen shortly after exiting the RV, walking towards Mr. Robillards vehicle and coming back with a large camouflage bag on her back re-entering the RV and closing the door.

#6 5:43:31 PM- The door to the RV opens and the heavy set black male wearing the orange and blue collared shirt exits the RV. As he walks down the steps of the RV, Mr. Robillard is seen closing the door. As he is closing the door, the heavyset black male turns around and gives Mr. Robillard a thumbs up with his right hand. Mr. Robillard closes then closes the door.

Mr. Robillard is seen standing in the doorway and appears to be speaking to someone, presumably the victim, and then he shortly exits. As Mr. Robillard exits the RV, he does not close the door and you can clearly see a black handgun on his right hip in a black holster tucked into his waistband. Mr. Robillard then hugs the young female and he moves his vehicle more into the driveway of 7907 Skyview Drive. The young female and Mr. Robillard hug, and the victim's wife can be soon seen entering the driveway wearing blue scrubs, a covid style face mask with her hair in a bun. All three then enter the RV and close the door. The young female then exits the RV closing the door, but re-enters shortly after.

#13 8:00:19 PM- Mr. Arango can be seen knocking on the door of the RV. Mr. Robillard exits the RV and has a conversation with Mr. Robillard. Mr. Robillard then re-enters the RV as Mr. Arango walks away.

The victim then walks out of the RV carrying the same large duffel bag he walked in with; going to his vehicle. The young female then re-enters the RV and exits carrying the large camouflage bag, going back to Mr. Robillard's vehicle. Mr. Robillard is seen standing in the doorway. The victim's wife then exits the RV and walks away as the victim re-enters the RV exiting a short time later. Mr. Robillard then exits the RV and the black handgun can still be clearly seen on his right hip inside of a black holster tucked in his waistband. He closes the RV door and enters the driver's seat of the black Toyota sedan. The young black female can be seen getting in the passenger seat. The victim stands outside of his vehicle and waits for Mr. Robillard to leave. As Mr. Robillard drives his vehicle, he conducts a three point turn in the roadway. You can clearly see multiple stickers on the trunk of his vehicle as he backs up and drives away. The victim then drives his vehicle away.

#15 8:59:43 PM- Mr. Robillard's black Toyota sedan is seen pulling into the driveway with Mr. Robillard as the only occupant. On the inside front dashboard of the vehicle, a military style camouflage hat can be seen along with a green hat with a gold five point star on it. #16 9:04:10 PM- Mr. Robillard exits the RV closing the door behind him. He the backseat of his vehicle and appears to be touching and moving the large black printer. He then enters the driver's seat and drives the vehicle away."

Exigent Arrest Warrant for Amony Robillard Authored and Signed

Based on all of the evidence available to me at this time, I developed probable cause that the following facts were true:

With the threat of a firearm, Amony Robillard took approximately $200.00 in cash and $450.00 through Cash App from Jean Accime with the intent to permanently deprive him of it.

Amony Robillard imprisoned Jean Accime against his will with the threat of a firearm, and had no authority to do so.

Amony Robillard made a malicious written and verbal communication to Jean Accime to expose him to disgrace and injure his reputation with the intent to get money from him.

As such, I authored a warrant for Amony Robillard's arrest for the following violations of Florida State Statute:

1. Robbery with a firearm (F.S.S. 812.13(2)(A)-16)
2. False Imprisonment with a weapon (F.S.S. 787.02(2)-2)
3. Extortion (F.S.S. 836.05)

Amony Robillard had made multiple threats to the victim, and also knew where the victim lived. As a Deputy Sheriff, Amony Robillard had access to multiple types of weapons, including firearms. Furthermore, it was presumed that he had access to various law enforcement databases that could assist him in locating Jean and Guerline, even if they were not at their registered address. Consequently, the aforementioned charges were requested to be placed upon Amony as an exigency.

An exigent arrest warrant was issued for Amony Robillard by the Honorable Judge Andrew Bain on the late evening of November 26th, 2021.

Amony Robillard's Arrest

On November 27th, 2021, at approximately 0130 hours, Detectives from the Orange County Sheriff's Office knocked on the front door of Amony's registered address, 5728 Shaker Palm Place in Saint Cloud, Florida. Amony came to the front door and was subsequently taken into custody for the charges mentioned above. Amony was placed in the back of Deputy Sheriff Francisco Santos Melo's marked Orange County Sheriff's Office patrol car and transported to the Orange County Sheriff's Office Central Operations Center for a custodial interview.

Search of Amony Robillard's residence, 5728 Shaker Palm PL, St Cloud, FL

After placing Amony under arrest, all of the occupants of his residence were asked to vacate and were told that a search warrant was forthcoming. While on scene, I made contact with Amony Robillard's wife, Bertrice Cerant. I asked Bertrice where her husband Amony was the weekend of November 19th, 2021. Bertrice said that Amony was in military training that particular weekend. She said she saw him on the morning of November 19th, but did not see him again until Monday, November 22nd. I asked Bertrice where Amony slept, and she said that he slept with her in their bedroom on the second floor. She said that Amony did have firearms, but that he was a Deputy Sheriff with Brevard County. She said he had some firearms in their bedroom and others in his vehicle. Bertrice pointed out a black Toyota bearing Florida tag TI0KAP in the driveway as Amony's vehicle. Bertrice also mentioned that Amony has an office where he frequently works, and that this room was directly on the right upon entering the residence. Bertrice also handed me two cell phones, saying both belonged to Amony. She said one was his personal phone and the other was the one he used for work. Amony's personal phone was identified as a Black Samsung Smart Phone (IMEI 356556/77/282464/6) Model #SM-N986U. Amony's photograph in his Deputy Sheriff uniform was on the background screen to the phone. Amony's work phone was identified as a light purple iPhone with a blue line flag in the background. Given that the victim mentioned Amony had recorded him on his cell phone for extortion purposes, both of these cell phones were seized pending a search warrant.

On November 27th, 2021, at approximately 0310 hours, a warrant was issued to search Amony's residence by the Honorable Judge Andrew Bain. The warrant was subsequently executed. Upon entering the residence, I could see multiple large portraits of Amony on the walls of the residence in his Deputy Sheriff and military uniforms. The office Beatrice described was located immediately to the right upon entering the residence, and contained an open computer with Amony's photograph in the background. Amony and Beatrice's bedroom was located upstairs, identified as such by Amony's multiple uniforms, Brevard County gun belt, Amony's firearms, their child's crib, and various pieces of paperwork belonging to Amony. The following items of note were located in Amony Robillard's residence:

Amony's Bedroom Closet:

In Amony's closet, I located the shirt, shoes, and pants he was wearing on the November 19th, 2021 surveillance footage from the Air BnB (See video #3 from the Air BnB surveillance footage above). I also located his Brevard County Sheriff's Office uniforms, to include his gun belt and agency issued firearm (A Walther PPQ with Serial #FCS1359).

Amony's Bedroom:

On the nightstand directly next to his bed, I located another firearm which was securely encased in a "pole craft" holster. This firearm was identified as a Taurus G3 with a serial number of ABE61150.

Amony's Home Office:

Inside of Amony's home office, I located multiple electronics, as well as an Army style backpack. The electronics that were seized are described as follows:

1. Grey Samsung Smart Phone with Amony Robillard photo in background
2. Black Lenovo Laptop
3. 2 Toro Black Flash Drives
4. 1 black "Passport" Flash Drive
5. Black Dell Computer

I also located a black HP Office Jet 3830 printer, which distinctly matched the one seen on surveillance footage that the female who was assisting Amony retrieved from his vehicle:

On the ground of the office was an Army style backpack. Inside of this backpack, I located Trojan condoms and a drafted contract with the defendant, victim, and victim's wife name on it. The contract was not signed, but contained multiple phone numbers on the back. The victim had indicated in his statement that Amony wrote down multiple numbers from the victim's phone for extortion purposes on a piece of paper. The contract that was seized reads as follows:

"I, Jean-Lourdy Accime and my wife Guerline Demosthene reside in 3011 Marta Circle Apt 103, Kissimmee Florida 34741 accept to pay Mr Amony Robillard $30,000 that I owe him. I borrowed the money from Mr Amony Robillard to invested in crypto currency and bitcoin and I made Mr Amony Robillard invested some of the money in PETRON PAY in order for me to gain some profits out of his money but he never got he's money back. So me and my wife decided to give him that money back so we don't have to get the United State of America and the state of Florida law involved in this matter. I also provide Mr. Robillard with a copy of my florida ID and My wife Florida ID as well. If me and my wife Guerline Demosthene failed to pay Robillard Amony that amount of money, Mr Robillard have the right to take me to court or I can go to jail for scammer and fraud. I decided to give Mr Robillard Amony a sum of _____ Today and I will give him an amount of _____ every month for a total of _____ every months until I paid off my loan"

Below the narrative, there is 4 signature spots, one for Jean, one for his wife Guerline, one for Amony, and another for "Notary Public". (See attached photos below)

Amony's Black Toyota Camry (FL License Plate TIOKAP)

Amony's black Toyota Camry (found to be registered to him via the Driver and Vehicle Information Database and FCIC/NCIC) was parked in his driveway within the curtilage of his property. This was the vehicle that Amony's wife Beatrice identified as his. Detective Lawyer Cliborne assisted me with searching this vehicle as part of the search warrant for Amony's residence. Detective Cliborne authored a supplemental report regarding his findings. The following was derived from Detective Cliborne's supplemental report:

"During the early morning hours of November 27th 2021, I assisted Detective Peers with the execution of a search warrant on Mr. Robillard's residence and vehicle. I was tasked with searching Mr. Robillard's registered black, 2015 Toyota Camry bearing Florida tag #TIOKAP. It should be noted the vehicle had multiple stickers on the trunk of the vehicle and located in the front inside dashboard was a military style camouflage hat and a green hat with a gold star on it; which matches the surveillance video from the day of incident. The vehicle was parked in the driveway of 5728 Shaker Palm Place within the curtilage. I located the following items inside the vehicle:

-Approximately four unopened Trojan condoms in the drives side door panel

-A Glock 19, 9mm handgun (serial # BPND557) with approximately 14 Hornady 9mm bullets in the magazine inserted into the magazine well; located in the center console. The Glock was painted silver and black with stars on the front barrel

-A black Glock 19, 9mm handgun (serial # XBR234) with approximately 14 Hornady 9mm bullets in the magazine inserted into the magazine well; located inside of a black holster in the glove compartment

-Approximately five unopened condoms in the rear driver's side door panel

Pictures were taken of the previous mentioned items and vehicle which were later placed into evidence.com via Axon Capture. The items were then logged into evidence and turned over to Detective Peers."

The silver and black Glock with the stars on the front barrel strongly resembled the firearm described by Jean and his wife that Amony had in his possession. (See Photograph below)

Custodial Interview with Amony Robillard

On November 27th, 2021, at approximately 0522 hours, after serving the search warrant on Amony Robillard's residence, I met with him at the Orange County Sheriff's Office central operations center to conduct a custodial interview. Amony was not in handcuffs and was given the opportunity to drink water and use the bathroom while waiting for the interview. Prior to the interview, Amony provided me with his name, address, and said his phone number was 561-507-9472. He said that he was a sworn Deputy Sheriff with the Brevard County Sheriff's Office and also a member of the Army National Guard. Amony also indicated that he is fluent in both English and Haitian Creole.

The interview lasted approximately an hour and a half, and was audio and video recorded. The recordings were uploaded into Evidence.com under this case number.

I asked Amony if he knew what his rights were during an interview and he stated that he did. I then read Amony his Miranda rights from an agency issued laminated card. Amony did not request the presence of counsel during this interview.

I asked Amony when the last time he had "Drill" or military training with his Army unit was and he stated it was during the beginning of November. I told Amony that I spoke with his wife and she thought he was gone on military training during the weekend of November 19th. Amony indicated that he had lied to his wife and that he was not at training, but instead was with some of his friends at a party. I asked Amony what had happened on Friday (November 19th) and he responded by saying, "you already know what happened." I told Amony that I wanted to hear it from his viewpoint. Amony ultimately confessed to waiving guns around and placing Jean in fear as he took his money. He admitted to videotaping Jean naked and threatening to expose the video if Jean refused to send him money. Amony indicated that he and "Djerise" worked in conjunction with one another to set Jean up. The following is a synopsis of my interview with Amony Robillard Amony said that he has known Jean Accime for approximately one year and that the two are from the same part of Haiti called Capsaicin. Amony stated he and Jean had met through Facebook, a social media platform where Amony sustains a high degree of popularity, and that Jean has even visited Amony's house. Amony said that many people know him to be a police officer, to include a friend of his named "Djerise", and as such frequently ask him for legal advice. Amony said that Djerise informed him their mutual friend, Jean Accime, was flirtatious with Djerise via text messages and that this made Djerise uncomfortable so she contacted Amony. Djerise would frequently update Amony on her conversations with Jean, and at one point informed him that Jean had offered to pay her money for sex. Amony decided he would help Djerise out by surreptitiously communicating with Jean through Djerise in order to catch him in the act of prostitution.

Amony told Djerise that he was extremely frustrated with Jean because Jean had owed him money. Amony thought that if Jean had enough money to pay Djerise for sex, he could surely pay his debt to Amony. Amony's second motive for catching Jean by surprise was to demand that Jean pay him back what was owed to him.

Amony continued in detail, saying that as Jean arrived at the Air BnB, that Amony surprised him. Amony initially claimed that this confrontation was cordial, and that he only shamed Jean for trying to pay a girl to have sex while still owing him a debt. Amony said that the entire time, he kept his firearms away from Jean and only took them out to show Jean that they were unloaded with "no magazines" (a fact later found to be false through Amony's cell phone video). Amony admitted to drafting a contract and having a notary arrive to sign it, but claimed that Jean signed the contract voluntarily and not under any duress. Amony said he even allowed Jean to call his wife so that Jean could explain the situation. Amony kept reiterating that he did not do anything illegal because he is knowledgeable of the law. Amony said he did not know where he put the signed contract, claiming that he probably threw it out because he never intended on acting upon it. Amony said he only wanted Jean to know that he "saw him", and that he was aware of the nefarious activity in which Jean was engaged. Amony said he never intended or wanted to cause Jean any harm, and that he frequently told Jean he was free to leave.

I asked Amony if he had a firearm on him the day he confronted Jean. He said he did have a firearm on him but told Jean that the firearm did not have any bullets in it, that he was not there to hurt him, just wanted Jean to "See" him. I asked Amony if he pointed the guns at Jean and Amony said he never pointed any guns at him because Amony is "not stupid". Amony kept saying that he even took the magazine out of the gun so Jean would know it wasn't loaded. I asked Amony to clarify how he showed Jean the gun and Amony said he showed it to him in a way that Jean would not be scared.

Amony initially said he only had one firearm on him. When I confronted Jean about the surveillance footage detectives had obtained, Jean retracted and said he did actually have two. Jean said he arrived with one in his pocket (a silver one) and another in a concealed holster on his hip (a black one). Amony said he only had 2 firearms and both were inside of his house. I told Amony that we located 2 guns in his car and 2 in his house and asked which ones were the ones he brought to the Air BnB. Amony retracted his statement again, and said the silver gun he used was in the center console of his vehicle and the other gun was on his night stand.

I asked Amony what he was wearing the day this incident occurred and he said he was wearing an army converse shirt, blue jeans, and multi-colored jeans. I told Amony the cameras were really good, and asked him what I would see on the cameras when Amony walked up. Amony said he had a gun on his hip and his silver gun in his pocket.

I asked Amony if Jean was naked while he was there and Amony said he was. Amony indicated that Jean was naked from the time Amony arrived (approximately 5pm) to the time Jean left (approximately 7pm). I asked Amony why Jean would voluntarily stay naked for so long, and Amony eventually agreed it was because Jean was afraid. I asked Amony why Jean was afraid and Amony said it was because he had firearms on him, and was shouting at Jean loudly.

Amony said that he videotaped everything on his Samsung phone just in case something happened so that Amony would have the evidence. Amony agreed to show me the video.

As Amony opened up the phone, there were multiple videos where Jean was seen sitting on the bed naked. Amony appeared reluctant to show me any of the videos, but finally made a careful selection of one. In the video Amony agreed to show me, all I can see is Jean sitting naked on the bed of the Air BnB with some music playing in the background. Due to Amony's reluctance, I informed him that he did not need to show me any more videos. I told Amony that I would be searching the phone on my own and looking through the videos.

I asked Amony when the last time he spoke with Jean was and he said it was Friday morning (the day prior) at approximately 8am. I asked him what that conversation was about and Amony said it was about Jean owing him money. Amony denied speaking with Jean at any other time during the day.

Amony said he worked and finished his shift at 6pm (corroborating the fact that detectives heard his police radio in the background of the controlled call).

I told Amony that I knew he was telling me some lies, especially about the last time he talked to Jean. He said the last time he talked with Jean was actually around 4pm, and that the conversation was about Jean owing him money. I asked Amony if he ever texted Jean and he said that he had texted him about Jean owing him money.

I informed Amony that detectives were present during his most recent phone call with Jean, and that we heard Jean confront him about having guns pointed at him. After Jean made this comment, Amony said that he confronted him this way because Jean was "an imbecile). Even after being confronted with the evidence, Amony denied agreeing to Jean that he pointed a firearm at him on the phone call.

I continued my conversation with Amony and asked him why he videotaped Jean naked. Amony said he did this because he wanted evidence of Jean's wrongdoing so that he could get the money that was owed to him. Amony told Jean that he would disseminate the video, specifically to Jean's pastor, if Jean did not eventually pay him the money. Amony said he never had any intent on actually performing this act, but only used it as a threat against Jean.

I asked Amony if he believed that Jean was afraid. Amony said that Jean was afraid, and that despite the fact that Amony told him he could leave, that Jean probably did not actually feel free to do so because of the fact that Amony had firearms on him.

Amony admitted to sending Jean a voice message, telling him that he could have died. Amony tried to explain this, saying that he was trying to convince Jean that if Amony was someone else, that he may have seriously hurt Jean.

I asked Amony about the liquid that Jean was drinking and Amony said it was an "energy" drink. Amony said that the "energy" drink was something Jean requested, from Djerise, so that Jean could perform better sexually during their encounter. Amony knew that Jean requested Djerise purchase this item and bring it to the Air BnB so that Jean's wife would not be aware given that the two shared an account.

I told Amony that I thought he tried to do the right thing, but did it in the wrong way. I asked Amony why what he did was done “in the wrong way” and Amony explained.

Amony said that it was wrong to confront Jean while he was naked and that it was wrong to have guns on him during the encounter. Amony said that if he could go back, he would only speak to Jean instead of trying to set him up with Djerise. Amony also said that it was wrong to videotape Jean and threaten to expose him with the video. Amony agreed that he put Jean in fear for his life.

As the conversation progressed, I asked Amony if Jean paid him any money and initially Amony said he did not pay him anything. Then he said that Jean did pay him $300-$400 on Cash App but that money was owed to Amony since Amony paid for the condoms, the Air BnB, and the sexual performance drink. Amony stated that after he scared Jean, Jean removed approximately $120.00 to pay Djerise for the sex that never happened. Amony said that when he got the money from Jean, Jean was still naked and afraid. I asked Amony why Jean was in fear and Amony said it was because Amony had firearms and that if he did not pay, Jean probably thought Amony would “do something to him.”

I told Amony that when someone is threatened with a firearm, and forced to give money, that was called robbery. Amony responded to this by asking to speak with Jean so that he could sort things out between the two of them. I told Amony that there was a mandatory no contact order on his arrest warrant and therefore he could not call Jean. Amony said that he was not trying to scare Jean, only that he wanted to protect the girl and to get his money back. Amony said all he was trying to do was to put Jean under some “pressure” so that Amony would get the money owed to him.

Amony agreed to write Jean an apology letter because he was sorry about what happened. Amony wrote an apology letter in Haitian Creole to Jean. After he wrote the letter, I asked Amony if he could translate the letter. Amony said the letter stated the following:

“Hey bro what’s up? Yo, I am just sending you this letter for whatever happened. I didn’t do that just to scare you. I was just acting like that because I knew you was doing something wrong and I was trying to get my money back and you have money. You know how things are going right now, you know. We are all trying to work to make a living. So please do whatever you can do, you know, talk to me talk to the people so that we can scratch this off and then we are done with this because my job, my family, everything jeopardized now. And you already know I took a loan so that is why I was trying to return that money. I thought I was doing something good but it turned bad. And you know I have 3 kids and my family they count on me, same as your family counts on you. I think whatever happened is a lesson for me and for him. My wife, my mom, my dad, everybody is crying now. Please brother talk to the people. I know you were scared but all I wanted to get from you is my money, you know. And basically I told him to talk to you guys, the people, so they won’t do anything to me, so we can finish with this. You see I didn’t do anything wrong to you, I was talking crap to see if you could give me the money back so I could return it to the loan. You can just call me, we can just talk about this and scratch it off. We are from the same part in Haiti, trying to work to make a living. Sorry brother, and please do whatever you can and respect.”

Amony said he did not plan on actually sending the video, just threatened to send it so that Jean would pay him. Amony indicated that the worst he would actually do is to tell the pastor of Jean’s church what happened.

I asked Amony how he and Djerise planned this and he said the two of them texted and met. Amony said the plan was to catch Jean trying to prostitute Djerise. Amony explained that the whole plan was for Amony to surprise Jean and scare him so that Jean give him his money. Amony thought this was something normal, because in his culture it happens all the time. Amony said that now he understands the act was stupid.

I then showed Amony a photograph of the text messages conversation that he had with Jean where Amony was demanding his money after the incident. I asked Amony if he had sent these text messages and he said that he did. Amony initialed all of the photographs he sent to Jean, saying he recognized the conversation and that he had this conversation with Jean the day after the incident. Amony also initialed the photograph of the Cash App transaction, confirming that Amony was the one who received that money.

I asked Amony if he had any questions for me and he said that it was a bad situation, a mistake, and that he wanted to speak with Jean to explain everything to him. Amony said that would never do anything like this again.

I took a photograph of the apology letter and uploaded it into Evidence.com and placed the original copy into Orange County evidence.

After the interview, Amony Robillard was taken to the Orange County jail by Deputy Sheriff Garfield Green without incident.

During the interview, Amony identified the Notary as “Melchy” with the phone number of 407-760-6813. Amony said he knew “Melchy” from the radio show Amony hosted.

Amony said “Djerise” was approximately 20 years old and provided me with her phone number as 407-781-7462.

Search of Amony's Personal Cell Phone

Perhaps the most undisputable piece of evidence obtained in this case was through Amony Robillard's personal cell phone – a Black Samsung Smart Phone (IMEI 356556/77/282464/6) Model #SM-N986U. On November 29th, 2021, a warrant to search Amony's digital devices was issued by the Honorable Judge Andrew Bain. On Amony's personal cell phone, I viewed the videos he had taken of his encounter with Jean Accime and Jerise Richer on November 19th, 2021. While viewing the videos, I had Deputy Sheriff Olivier Fils-Aime assist me with translation as much of the video was in Haitian Creole.

In many of the videos, Amony Robillard points the same silver firearm that was located in his vehicle at Jean Accime, who sits compliantly on the bed naked. A magazine can be seen inserted inside of the firearm, leading one to believe that it is in fact loaded. The video shows Amony forcing Jean to sign the contract agreeing to pay him $30,000.00, and even shows the notary arrive and notarize the contract. In many of the videos, Amony is shouting at Jean with Jerise Richer, whose face appears on multiple occasions in the video. Amony's face also appears on multiple occasions in the video. One video shows Amony conversing with Guerline while Jean Accime stands behind her, naked.

Amony can be heard making multiple threats to Jean's life. At one point, Amony tells Jean that he plans on killing him, cutting up his body, putting it in a garbage bag, and throwing it in the ocean for the sharks to eat. At one point, in English, Amony threatens to use his authority as a law enforcement officer to place Jean under arrest.

There are hours of video taken on Amony's cell phone which corroborate Jean's account of the incident establishing proof that Amony Robillard committed an armed robbery and an extortion upon Jean Accime, all while holding him at gunpoint against his will. Some snapshots were taken from the videos which show Amony, Jerise, and the firearms that were pointed at Jean. These photographs were uploaded into Evidence.com (See some attached photographs below). Some of the audio was translated by Deputy Sheriff Fils-Aime and is written in English below:

1st Video

Robillard says, "I was one who booked Air BnB, I bought Condoms. If you say a word without me telling you, I will shoot you. I could kill you right now, dump your body in the woods and have animals eat you. I've killed people before. Its nothing for me to shoot you right now. I am mad you know Djerise is married yet you are still trying to get her to have sex."

Jerise Richer says, "You know I like "Robi" (possibly Robillard), so I don't know why you are trying to have sex with me."

Robillard then threatens to take the victim to jail right now for prostitution. Robillard demands that the victim take money out of his pants and hand it to the girl. The victim complies. Robillard then tells the victim that he owes him $30,000.00.

The victim takes appx $100.00 out of his wallet and hands it to the Jerise. Jerise asks "do I look like someone who only deserves $100.00?"

Robillard says in the video that Jerise has been telling him all the bad things Jean has been saying about him. Robillard says that he and the female came up with the plan to set him up together.

Jean says that he has learned his lesson. Robillard disagrees and tells Jean that he does not think he has learned his lesson yet.

Robillard then says, "You don't even know if you are going home yet."

2nd Video

Robillard is explaining to the notary that he knows Jean from Haiti. Robillard tells the notary that he is sorry for waiving a gun around. Robillard explains to the notary that Jean has a wife and kids and is trying to have sex with the Jerise. Robillard indicates that he is the care taker of female and has even helped her through school. Robillad tells the notary that Jean was trying to pay female to have sex and then tells Jean to call his wife.

3rd Video

Robillard is telling Jean to call his wife. Jerise is shouting saying, "Do you think $100.00 is enough for me." As Jean responds, Robillard says, "If you say one more thing, I will blow your head off, what you just did right now is going to mark you for life."

Robillard then tells Jean he came in when Jean was in the shower. He also says that he was the one who bought the sexual supplements for Jean Robillard begins telling Jean that he owes him $30,000.00, saying that he needs to take all of his crypto money out and send it to him. He then tells Jean to send him his address, wife's information, and all his money to him.

Robillard then makes Jean sign the contract. Robillard tells Jean to send him $300.00 because that is how much the Air BnB costs. While asking him to send him money, Robillard is holding the firearm in his hand. Robillard says there is 5 condoms on the table that the victim owes him for and that the condoms cost an additional $150.00. Robillard adds the costs up and says that Jean owes him a total of $450.00.

Jean tells Robillard that he can't pay that much because "things aren't good right now." Robillard responds to this plea by racking the gun he was holding, as if he his chambering a round, and says he doesn't care.

Robillard tells Jean that he is never going to do anything like this ever again.

Jean begins to cry when speaking, and appears to be in distress.

Amony makes Jean confirm by looking at his phone that Jean is sending all the money to correct account.

The video proceeds, where Amony holds a silver gun in his hand and forces victim to sign the contract. One contract has just has Jean's name on it, the other has Jean and Guerline's names on it.

Robillard begins to ask Jean when his wife gets out of work.

Jerise then confronts Jean, and asks him if he gives his wife $100.00 for sex. Jean tells Jerise that she was the one who made me say he was going to give her $100.00 for sex.

4th Video

Robillard points to a drink and tells him, "this is the Toa and maggi I bought for you so drink it." This was determined to be the sexual performance supplement.

While videoing, Robillard asks Jean, "If I killed you, would your wife come for you?"

5th Video

Robillard says he was going to find some Viagra for the victim, but that the liquid is all he could find.

Jean thanks Robillard for not killing him. Robillard responds by saying that he does not know that he won't kill him yet.

Robillard tells Jean that sometimes when he is texting the Jerise, he is actually texting the Robillard because the two were working together.

Robillard then tells victim he is going to kill him, cut him up piece by piece, put him in a garbage bag, and throw him away. Robillard tells Jean he will have the fish eat him, and says, "You know how we do things."

Robillard tells Jean to say the date into the video and asks him to tell the video what he has learned. Jean says that he has learned his lesson.

Robillard then tells Jean that if they put Jean in prison right now that he will be deported and that Robillard will make sure that this happens.

Robillard tells Jean that he needs to hear, right now, that he will pay him back. The two engage in a conversation about how Jean supposed to be borrowing money. Robillard asks for money that Jean supposed to be borrowing, possibly $9,000.00, and Jean says he doesn't have it.

Robillard then tells Jean he is not scared to die, that he is someone who has been dead already and has seen things. Robillard then goes on to say that he hates it when people ask him if he has killed someone, and that this is an inappropriate question to ask law enforcement or military.

Robillard tells Jean that he is going to make an example out of him.

Jean says that he has $400.00 in crypto currency and Robillard tells him to take it out. Robillard then grabs firearm sits next to victim on the bed.

Robillard asks Jean, "how would you feel if I went after your wife?"

Jean begins to beg Robillard for a chance, and even tells Robillard that he will kneel in front of him. Robillard says "I am not God, do not kneel."

At one point, Robillard pans the video over to the contract where the notaries stamp can see on the paper. The name on the stamp is "Melchy Pierre Louis".

Robillard tells Jean that he could take him to court and that Jean is not doing him any favors. Robillard says that Jean is only returning the money that is owed.

Later in the video, Jean attempts to call his wife's work but is unable to reach her.

6th Video

Jean eventually gets ahold of his wife's work. Her colleagues saw that he called multiple times and became worried. They indicate to Jean that she is busy so she cannot answer.

Jean eventually gets ahold of his wife Guerline. Guerline asks where Jean is at. Jean tells Guerline that she needs to come to an address to sign something. Jean tells Guerline not to tell anyone anything.

Robillard then tells Jean to tell Guerline to come immediately due to an emergency. Jean complies, which scares Guerline. Jean tries to calm her down and tells her she needs to leave work. She wants to know exactly why, but Jean will not tell her.

Robillard then talks to Guerline, telling her that Jean has an emergency and that she needs to come immediately. Robillard then asks Guerline, "What is more important, your job or your husband's life?" Robillard tells Guerline that he has caught Jean trying to have sex with another female and that he needs her to come and get her husband.

During this conversation, Robillard is holding a firearm in his hand.

7th Video

Robillard says he doesn't even care if police come. He indicates to Jean that his badge and gun are on him and that he could put Jean in handcuffs. Robillard then tells Jean he could tell people that Jean was going to rape Jerise and pay her for sex and that "he would be done."

Robillard then asks Jean for his Pastor's name.

Robillard tells Jean he is free to leave if he wants to, but tells him in English.

Robillard says to Jean that when Guerline arrives, he is going to explain everything and then Jean will be allowed to leave.

8th Video

Robillard is heard explaining to Jean that he is not a "dirty" person. Robillard says that if he were a "dirty" person, he would have made his wife Guerline come down to the Air BnB and have sex with her right in front of him. He explains to Jean that he thinks before he acts, so if he wanted to shoot Jean right now, that Jean should know that it would be thought out beforehand.

Robillard then calls Guerline back, and tells her it does not sound like she is driving. He asks Guerline, "do you want your husband or not?" Guerline asks Robillard to be patient, and he tells her that she only has 45 minutes left. Robillard tells Guerline that if he were to do something to Jean, it would have already been done, but the longer she takes the worse it is going to be for Jean. Jean then tells Guerline to come alone and not to bring anyone. Robillard says to Guerline that she only has 30 minutes left and hangs up.

9th Video

Robillard asks Jean, "How would you feel if your mother found out you died or found out if you got deported?" Robillard tells Jean that if he was a dirty person, he would have sex with Djerise in front of him, then have sex with his wife in front of him. Robillard indicated that he does not care about the consequences or what happens to him, and that he is very calm.

Robillard says to Jean, "When I heard you talking shit about me I just laughed because I knew that I could easily show up to your house and blow your head off."

Robillard says to Jean that he will send the video to all the people at his church. Robillard asks Jean, "How he would feel if he sent the video to all the contacts in your phone?"

Jean thanks Robillard for not killing him because he knows there are things in this country that Robillard can do. Robillard says if he (Robillard) does his time in prison he does not care but that Jean will be done for good.

Robillard tells Jean, "I could have bathed you in your own blood. I could have used this gun, cut you into pieces, put you in a trash bag."

Robillard then gives Jean his phone to call Guerline. Robillard says Jean can only call his wife from the phone and no one else.

10th Video

Guerline comes in to the Air BnB and looks at husband standing naked in corner. Robillard and Jerise are sitting on bed. Robillard tells Guerline that he could have just shown up, shot her husband, and put him in a trash bag. Robillard says he could have called the cops and gotten Jean arrested for prostitution. Robillard shows Guerline the money and condoms on the table, and tells both belong to her husband. Jean speaks and says those are not his condoms. Robillard also shows the sexual performance enhancing supplements and say those also belong to Jean. Robillard then introduces Jerise to the wife, saying she is sick with cancer, and that Jean was texting Jerise for sex

Jean begins to talk and then Robillard picks something up from the counter, possibly the gun, points it at Jean and tells him to "relax".

Robillard explains to Guerline how Jean was set up by him and Jerise. He says that Jerise would send him screen shots of Jean's conversations with her, and how he was trying to have sex. Robillard explains that Jean did not want to buy a hotel because Guerline would see the charge on their credit card statement.

Robillard tells Guerline that if Jean took a pill earlier that day, Robillard would have just came and killed him because Jean disrespected him. Robillard indicated that he did not care if he went to jail.

Guerline tells Robillard that she is shocked. Robillard asks Jean if his wife deserves all of this and he says no.

Robillard explains to Guerline that Jean made him invest a lot of money, which he lost, and as a result owes him $30,000.00. Guerline asks Robillard if he wants all of the money now and he says no. Robillard indicates to Guerline that he could have her husband deported or sent to jail.

Guerline says she feels as if she is in a dream. Robillard accuses Jean of using Guerline for residency in America. Guerline asks how Robillard wants the $30,000.00. Robillard says that if he does not get money from Jean, that he will send Jean to jail, and that it is up to Jean how he is going to get the money to him.

Robillard shows Guerline the notarized contract that he got signed and says he can take it to court.

Guerline says that she will pay Robillard, but that she will not sign contract because she can tell something nasty is going on. Guerine refuses to sign the contract.

Robillard then indicates something about discharging a firearm into someone's head, but the exact quote is inaudible.

Robillard asks Guerline if the video showed up in their church, how it would make them feel.

Robillard proceeds to ask for a $5,000.00 down payment. He tells Jean that before he can leave, that Jean will tell him exactly when he will pay him this money. Guerline attempts to negotiate with Robillard, and asks if $4,000.00 is okay? Robillard says he needs a date. Jean tells Robillard it will probably take him about a week to get the money.

Jean then agrees to pay Robillard the following Tuesday. At this point, Robillard begins to write down Jean's Pastors information.

11th Video

Robillard tells Jean not to get into a pickle with people in law enforcement and the military.

12th Video

Jerise Richer is heard shaming Jean, saying that Jean has a very good wife. Jean says he was trembling, was extremely scared, and even got so scared he peed on the Robillard.

13th Video

Jean begins to get dressed. Robillard asks Guerline again to sign the paper just in case something happens. Guerline declines, saying she knows it is not clean. Robillard makes Jean give him his identification again so he can print something off. Guerline is asking if it was her husband who came here. Robillard says yes, that Jean came here, and everything was set up via text message.

Guerline begins saying how Jean is always talking about Robillard is a good person due to the fact that he is in the military and in law enforcement. Robillard can then be heard telling Jerise to put everything in the car. Guerline tells her husband that she is surprised he is caught up in this stuff.

Robillard videos himself leaving the Air BnB, turning off all lights, and locking it up.

14th Video

A silver firearm can be seen in front of Robillard. Robillard tells Jean, "shut the fuck up!" Robillard then waves a black handgun at Jean. He shows Jean both guns and asks him which one he wants to get shot with. Robillard tells Jean, "If you open your mouth, I will shoot you. I don't care if I go to prison. I can kill you right now."

I also located Amony's Cash App account, and was able to find the transaction in which Amony received $450.00 from Jean on November 19th, 2021. This transaction corresponds to Jean's date/time stamp from his Cash App account and fits within the time window when Jean and Amony were observed on surveillance footage being inside the Air BnB. (See attached photographs).

Lastly, I was able to locate multiple phone calls to someone named "Melchy" in Amony's personal phone. These calls were before and during the time that Amony had held Jean against his will. "Melchy" was the notary who arrived to notarize the contract Amony drafted which showed that Jean would pay him $30,000.00

Search of Amony's Work Cell Phone

A search of Amony Robillard's work cell phone revealed the call logs he had with the victim. Of note, I was able to locate the two phone calls Amony made from this phone while Jean was in the interview that he did not answer. I was also able to locate the call that Amony received from Jean immediately after, where Amony did answer. This latter phone call is the "controlled call" mentioned above. This call log further proves that the specific phone we recovered from Amony's residence was the same one that called him on the afternoon of November 26th, 2021, when Jean was making his report. (See attached photographs).

This specific cell phone was an iPhone with a blue line flag as the background and had the phone number of 321-427-1677.

Search of Amony's Personal Computer

The Lenovo laptop recovered from Amony's home office was searched. Upon opening this Laptop, the first item on the screen was the contract Amony had drafted and had Jean signed. A photograph was taken of this contract on Amony's computer and submitted into Evidence.com. (See attached photo).

Identification and Interview of "Djerise"

Both the victim Jean Accime and the defendant Amony Robillard had provided me with the phone number for "Djerise", the individual who lured Jean in with promise of sexual intercourse. The phone number that was provided by both was 407-781-7462. Through law enforcement databases, this phone number was identified as belonging to a female named "Jerise Richer" (See attached photo below). Only one Jerise Richer was found in law enforcement databases to reside in Orange County, and had a listed address of 4424 Ravinnia Drive in Orlando, Florida. The date of birth of Jerise Richer was listed as July 16th, 2002, which matched the age range as was described by the victim and suspect.

Furthermore, the victim provided me with the publicly viewable facebook profile of "Djerise" as <https://www.facebook.com/princess.djerise.52>. I was able to view multiple "selfie" style photographs of "Djerise".

In the multiple videos that Amony Robillard took of this incident on his personal phone, there are a few moments where "Djerise's" face is captured on camera. I compared what I saw from Amony's cell phone and the selfies from "Djerise's" Facebook profile, and noticed that the two looked identical.

Based on these facts, I decided to go and make contact with Jerise Richer (DOB 07/16/02) at her listed address of 4424 Ravinnia Drive on December 2nd, 2021. A female identified as Guerlie Dalce answered the front door. Guerlie said that Jerise was a family member of hers, but did not currently reside at that residence. Guerlie added that Jerise lived close, and offered to call her on the phone to have her meet me at this address. Guerlie dialed the phone number 407-781-7462 (the same number for the suspect "Djerise"), and Jerise Richer answered. Jerise agreed to meet with me in front of the Bravo Supermarked located less than a half a mile away at 4065 West Oak Ridge Road.

Upon arrival at 4065 West Oak Ridge Road, I met with Jerise Richer who was an exact match to the individual seen in the facebook profile identified by the victim. Jerise spoke broken English and fluent Haitian Creole, so I had Deputy Sheriff John Bellavoir, who is bi-lingual in Haitian Creole and English, accompany me for translation purposes.

I told Jerise that I needed to speak with her regarding an incident that happened a few weeks back in which she was involved. I told Jerise that before we spoke, I wanted her to know her rights. I never informed Jerise that she was detained, but based on the seriousness of the incoming accusations, I had Deputy Bellavoir read Jerise her Miranda rights in Haitian Creole. Jerise waived her rights and asked me what incident I wanted to speak with her about. I told Jerise I wanted to speak with her about Amony. Jerise's immediate response was "Amony Robillard". Much of the interview with Jerise is in Haitian Creole, which was translated by Deputy Bellavoir. The following is a synopsis of my interview with Jerise:

Jerise met Amony Robillard on Facebook through his radio show called "Love Connection" in the beginning of January, 2021. Through various posts Jerise would make on Amony Robillard's Facebook page, she met multiple people, to include Jean Accime. Jean would send Jerise motivational messages on Facebook, which eventually led to Jerise providing Jean with her personal phone number. I asked Jerise what happened with Jean and Amony at the Air BnB. Jerise proceeded to look through her cell phone, saying that she did not delete anything just in case something happened.

Jerise looked through the text messages between her and Jean, and said that around November 15th, 2021, Jean texted her in regards to a post she made on Amony's page. Jerise and Jean engaged in a short conversation, and at some point, Jean asked Jerise what she did for "fun" when her boyfriend was not around. Jerise took this as a sexual advance, and told Jean that she was offended by the question. According to Jerise, Jean then told her that he wanted to pay her $100.00 for sex. This offended Jerise because she believed she was worth more than $100.00. Jerise reached out to Amony about this, and Amony began coaching Jerise, telling Jerise to have Jean keep texting her so the two of them could put Jean in jail. I asked Jerise what happened at the Air BnB, and she said that she could not buy a hotel because she was only 19. Jean instructed Jerise to buy the hotel with her own money, and that he would pay her back when he saw her. Jerise had Amony book the hotel, and agreed to meet with Jean at the hotel on November 19th, 2021. Jerise began talking back and forth to Jean and to Amony, separately, regarding this meetup.

Amony told Jerise that he was frustrated with Jean because Jean had not yet paid him for a debt he owed, but was willing to pay money for a hotel and sex with Jerise. Jean told Jerise that he had just recently took out a loan for $52,000.00, and Jerise informed Amony of this fact.

On November 19th, 2021, Amony dropped off Jerise at the Air BnB. Jerise knew that Amony was going to come into the Air BnB. Amony told Jerise he would be coming to the Air BnB to confront Jean about the money that he owed. Amony was under the impression that Jean had $52,000.00 in his possession based on the information that Jerise provided.

Jerise waited at the Air BnB until Jean arrived at approximately 5:00pm. Once Jean arrived, he got naked and began kissing her, and Jerise told him to "slow down." Jean complied. Moments later, Amony arrived through the door that Jerise left unlocked at confronted Jean. Jerise said that as Amony arrived he shamed Jean. Amony began accusing Jean of taking advantage of Jerise, because Jean knew that Jerise had cancer and he was using his connection with her through church to have sex with her. Amony then began demanding money from Jean, saying that he had family in Haiti he needed to take care of. I asked Jerise if Amony had guns on him when he demanded the money and she replied by saying, "you know that Amony is a Sheriff Deputy right?" Jerise said that Amony had two guns on him, a black one holstered on his hip and a silver and black one that was not in a holster. Jerise said that the Amony told her that the silver and black one did not have any bullets in it.

I asked Jerise to describe the contract agreement that occurred in the Air BnB. Jerise said that Amony counted how much money Jean owed him, and it came to $30,000.00. Jerise stated that the contract was an agreement for Jean to pay Amony this amount. Jerise provided Jean with the pen to sign this contract. Jerise even went to Amony's vehicle to get his printer so that the contract could get printed\from Amony's laptop. According to Jerise, Jean was not under any pressure to sign this contract.

I told Jerise that I believed she was not being fully truthful, especially since I had already viewed the videos taken on Amony's phone. I told Jerise that I believed she was only trying to protect Amony, and that it was necessary for her to be fully truthful. Jerise then said Jean was scared, but probably only because Jean knew Amony was a police officer. Jerise said that Amony never pointed a gun at Jean. I told Jerise I knew that Amony pointed a gun at Jean, and I could see it in the video. Jerise then said that Amony did not point the gun at Jean at the moment he signed the contract. Jerise continued, saying that Amony did grab the gun off the table and shouted at Jean, but only because Jean began to lie to Amony which made Amony angry. Jerise said that Jean did appear afraid, and in her opinion, it was because Amony threatened to take Jean to jail for not having proper immigration papers. In total, Jerise said that Amony took approximately $400.00 from Jean. Jerise said that this amount was calculated based on the cost of the Air BnB, the condoms, and the sexual performance enhancement liquid Jean requested. Jerise stated that she also got some cash from Jean, which was approximately $100.00, which he had put on the table.

I asked Jerise if Jean had urinated on himself. Jerise said that Jean did urinate himself, and it was because he was surprised. Jerise said that she has been so scared she urinated herself in the past, and it was when she could not get ahold of her mother because she thought her mother was getting deported. Jerise said she was extremely afraid during this incident.

Jerise said that she and Amony took the video of Jean because they wanted proof that he showed up to the Air BnB to have sex. I asked Jerise what her and Amony planned on doing with the footage, and she said that she never planned on posting the video on Facebook or anything, but did her Amony threatening to send the video to Jean's contacts.

I asked Jerise why Jean was naked for so long. Jerise said it was because she and Amony wanted Jean's wife to see him naked. Jerise said that Jean was not allowed to get dressed until his wife arrived at the Air BnB. Jerise stated that Jean was told he was free to leave, but that was not until much later in the incident.

I asked Jerise if Amony ever made any threats to kill Jean. Jerise said the only mention of death Amony made was when he said it was inappropriate for anyone to ask him if he ever killed anyone. I reminded Jerise that we had Amony's cell phone video, and to tell the truth regarding this statement.

Jerise stated that she feels somewhat bad about what happened. At one point, Jerise told Amony that as a Deputy Sheriff, he should be speaking to Jean the way he did. Jerise heard Amony making threats to Jean's life, specifically the threat about cutting him up and putting him in a garbage bag, and told Amony she thought this was inappropriate.

Jerise showed me her Facebook profile, which was viewable at the same Facebook link provided by the victim, Jean.

Jerise did not have any photographs suitable for a photographic lineup in any law enforcement databases. Consequently, I asked her if she would allow me to take a photograph of her. Jerise agreed, and I took a photograph of Jerise's face on my work cell phone for lineup purposes.

I told Jerise that I needed to download the messages between her and Jean for the case, and needed to collect her cell phone. Jerise provided me with her cell phone. Jerise was released and was told she would be contacted when her cell phone was available to collect from the Sheriff's Office.

Deputy Sheriff John Bellavoir authored a supplemental report regarding his involvement in this incident. Deputy Bellavoir's supplemental report reads as follows:

"On November 2nd, 2021, at approximately 1630 hours, I, Deputy John Bellavoir (EID: 10220) responded to 4065 West Oak Ridge Road in reference to assisting Detective Peers with translation. See original report reference case number (21-085717).

My involvement includes the following:

Upon my arrival, I made contact with Jerise Richer who verbally advised the following in Creole which I translated to English. Jerise was read her rights from agency issued Miranda card, prior to any questioning. She advised she did not need an attorney and she was willing to talk to me and Detective Peers.

Jean Accime offered Jerise 100 dollars for sex and she felt disrespected. When Amony became aware of the comments made by Jean, Amony advised Jerise to keep talking to Jean in order to put him in jail. Amony then stated Jean does not have any legal documents to be in the United States.

Jerise advised she was dropped off at an Airbnb by Amony. Amony paid for the Airbnb because she did not have any money. A short while later, Jean called her and advised he was outside of the Airbnb. When Jerise went outside to check, Jean was not there because he was at the wrong address. Jerise waited outside of the Airbnb, awaiting for Jean's arrival.

Moments later, while inside the Airbnb, Jean was fully naked and he got on top of her. It should be noted, that Jerise was scared of Jean because he is a bigger guy. As a result, she wear tight pants in case Jean wanted to do something to her. Jerise knew Amony was going to be at the Airbnb after he dropped her off. Jerise told Jean to slow down to which he did partially. Jean kept getting close to Jerise and continued trying to get on top of Jerise, Jerise got mad and told him to slow down. Amony then came in through the front door which was left opened by Jerise.

Amony was only at the Airbnb to confront Jean who is supposed to give him some money. Jean kept telling Amony he did not have any money, but Jean had offered Jerise 100 dollars for sex and also told Jerise that he got a $52,000 dollar loan.

Jean had a black, loaded handgun on his right hip and a black and gray unloaded handgun on the left side of his hip. At some point, while in the room, Jerise went outside and brought a printer to the room. Amony calculated that Jean owed him 30,000 dollars. Therefore, Amony was telling Jean to sign a contract agreeing to pay Amony. At one point, Amony did point a gun, but not directly at Jean. Jerise advised Amony did say he was going to kill Jean and put him in a trash bag and dump him in the ocean if he did not pay.

Jean did not put his clothes on because Jean's wife was called to come to the Airbnb and he was not allowed to leave the Airbnb.

Body-worn camera video is available.

This concludes my involvement in this investigation."

Search Warrant of Jerise Richer's Cell Phone

On December 2nd, 2021, a warrant was issued to search Jerise Richer's cell phone by the Honorable Judge Andrew Bain. While searching Jerise's cell phone, I located the conversations she had with Jean Accime and Amony Robillard leading up to the events on November 19th, 2021. The majority of the conversations are in Haitian Creole, so Deputy Sheriff Rouben Joseph of the Orange County Sheriff's Office, who is fluent in both Haitian Creole and English, provided me with a translation of these messages. Below is a synopsis of the conversations I was able to view.

Jean and Jerise share multiple messages on WhatsApp, dating back to April 24th, 2021. There are multiple messages between Jean and Jerise which indicate the two are flirtatious with one another. Jerise sends Jean multiple messages, telling him that the thought of sex with him will not go away. The two even message each other saying that they are in love. She sends him photographs of her in bathing suits, her vagina, and on November 15th, 2021, agrees to meet with him at a hotel on November 19th, 2021. The two go back and forth about these arrangements, eventually agreeing to meet at an Air BnB around 4:00PM. Jerise sends Jean the reservation, to include the address which is listed as 7907 Skyview Drive. Jerise agrees to pay for the Air BnB, because Jean tells her he is unable to pay for it without his wife, who shares an account with him, noticing. Jerise tells Jean that she is dating Amony, and that she knows Jean and Amony are friends, so she wants to ensure Jean does not tell Amony she will be cheating on him. Jean tells Jerise he is not talking with Amony.

At some point late in these conversations, Jerise texts Jean asking him how much he is willing to pay her for sex. Jean gets offended at this question, and tells her that he will help her out financially as a friend, but is uncomfortable paying her for sex. The two argue about this topic, and eventually Jean agrees to pay Jerise $100.00.

On November 19th, the two exchange sexual type text messages with one another regarding their meetup. Jerise even tells Jean that she will not be wearing any underwear when they meet up and that she is very wet. When Jean is on the way to the Air BnB, Jerise sends a video of herself caressing her body to Jean. The last message between the two is on November 19th, 2021, at approximately 1642 hours, just minutes prior to when Jean is seen arriving at the Air BnB on surveillance cameras.

After checking these messages, I looked through the messages that Jerise had with Amony. While looking through these messages, it is clear that the two conspired together to get Jean to meet Jerise at the Air BnB so that Amony could surprise him. Jerise sends Amony multiple screen shots of her conversations with Jean. In many of the conversations, Amony coaches Jerise on what to say. Amony tells Jerise that he is going to make Jean show her respect, and that he will take a video of Jean. Amony instructs Jerise to tell Jean to shower when he gets there, and when he is in the shower, Amony will enter the Air BnB. At 1654 hours, Jerise sends Amony a message saying that Jean is in the shower and to hurry up. This is only moments before Amony is seen arriving at the Air BnB on surveillance footage.

At 2049 hours, Amony messages Jerise, telling her that he is looking for the paperwork where he wrote down all of Jean's contacts. Shortly after, Amony sends Jerise a voice message, telling her not to be upset about what she witnessed. Amony tries to reassure Jerise, telling her that his guns were not loaded, and that Jean can not get them in trouble because Amony never physically hurt him.

Photographic Lineup of Jerise Richer with Jean Accime

On December 6th, 2021, at approximately 1830 hours, I met with Jean Accime, along with Detective Mondezy Lindor for translation purposes, to administer a photographic lineup using the photograph I took of Jerice Richer on December 2nd.

Using individuals who were similar to Jerise in age, weight, sex, race, and general appearance, I created a sequential photographic lineup (lineup #47820) to present to the victim.

The victim was read the instructions for the photographic lineup, which were then translated into Haitian Creole by Detective Lindor, which are as follows:

"You are being asked to look at a group of photographs. These photographs are in sequential order. You will look at each photograph one at a time and not in any particular order. Take as much time as you need to examine each photograph. If you make an identification, you will be asked to view the remaining photographs. There are some blank photos in the series. This is part of the normal process. You are not obligated to identify anyone. The person of interest may or may not be in the line-up presented. It is just as important to clear innocent persons from suspicion as to identify guilty parties. Individuals presented in these photographs may not appear as they did on the date of the incident. Keep in mind features such as hair styles, facial hair, and an individual's weight are subject to change. Since this is an ongoing investigation, you should not discuss the identification procedures or results. The investigation will continue with or without an identification."

The victim initialed the lineup instructions, indicating that he understood them. I shuffled a series of 8 closed manila folders, 6 containing photographs and 2 containing blank filler pages, and then handed them to the victim. After handing them to the victim, Detective Lindor and I walked into another room and told Jean to let us know when he was finished.

Jean shouted that he was done, and Detective Lindor and I approached him. Jean had indicated that he made an identification, and that Jerise, the individual who set him up to be robbed by Amony, was depicted in photograph number 1. Photograph #1 was the photograph I took of Jerise Richer on December 2nd, 2021.

The victim circled and initialed Jerise Richer's photograph. He also initialed the remaining photographs to indicate the fact that he had viewed them. He completed an eyewitness identification affidavit that was attached with this lineup.

Identification of phone numbers by Jean Accime on Contract

After administering the photographic lineup to Jean Accime of Jerise Richer on December 6th, 2021, I asked him if he could identify some phone numbers. The phone numbers I asked him to identify were taken from the back of the contract located in Amony Robillard's residence. During Jean's initial interview, he mentioned that Amony went through his phone and wrote down multiple phone numbers that he planned on sending the video to in the event Jean did not pay him money.

The phone numbers written on the back of the contract were all saved in Jean's phone as follows:

1. 407-749-6687 – Jean's mother in law
2. 321-669-0617 – Jean's Pastor (number is actually 321-663-0617, may have written incorrectly)
3. 407-745-8500 – Deacon at Jean's church
4. 407-870-3583 – Jean's wife's uncle
5. 321-697-2242 – Jean's Pastor's Wife
6. 407-985-1906 – Jean's Pastor's office number

See the attached photo representing the phone numbers that Amony obtained from Jean's phone and wrote down on the contract.

Arrest Warrant Issued for Jerise Richer

On December 8th, 2021, a warrant was issued for Jerise Richer's arrest for principal in the first degree to an armed robbery and for conspiracy to commit extortion. At the time of this report, Jerise Richer has yet to be arrested for these charges.

24. Text messages between Jerise Richer and Amony Robillard obtained from Jerise Richer's phone.

After a review of the evidence, I have reached the conclusion that Amony Robillard and Jerise Richer worked in conjunction with one another to have Jean Accime lured to an Air BnB 7907 Skyview Drive on November 19th, 2021. Once Jean was inside of the Air BnB, Amony Robillard and Jerise Richer maintained communication so that Amony could enter without Jean's knowledge and surprise him when he exited the shower. Jean Accime was held against his will at gunpoint, naked, inside of the Air BnB from approximately 5:00pm to 8:00pm on November 19th, 2021, by Amony Robillard and Jerise Richer. During this time period, Amony took money (approximately $550.00), both in the form of cash and via Cash App from Jean Accime. Amony also forced Jean to sign a contract agreeing to pay Amony $30,000.00. Amony recorded much of this interaction, and threatened to share this video with Amony's church and family if he did not pay him. Jerise Richer knew that Amony had planned on confronting Jean about the money that was owed to him, and assisted Amony on multiple occasions both before and during this incident.

Consequently, Amony Robillard was charged with the following violations of Florida State Statute:

1. FSS 812.13(2)(A)-16: Robbery with a firearm
2. FSS 787.02(2)-2: False imprisonment with a weapon
3. FSS 836.05: Extortion

Jerise Richer was charged with the following violations of Florida State Statute:

1. FSS 812.13(2)(A)-12: Principal/First Degree – Robbery with a firearm
2. FSS 836.05-1: Conspiracy to commit extortion

All interviews, interrogations, and photographs were recorded and uploaded into Evidence.com under this case number.
