Defendant [REDACTED] victim (V1). Today was the first day defendant was allowed to see [REDACTED] following a Department of Children and Family Services (DCF) [REDACTED] just 14 days earlier.

On 05/28/2024 at approximately 7:06pm, defendant called 911 to report [REDACTED] missing, when officers arrived, she stated that [REDACTED] had just dropped [REDACTED] V1 and [REDACTED]. Defendant told police that she believes V1 ran off after [REDACTED] left because she wanted to go with him. Defendant said she saw this occur and pointed to the direction she ran in. Defendant claimed that [REDACTED] is also autistic and has been known to wonder off. So much so that she has a "Project Life Saver" band on her ankle. Defendant reported that V1 cut the Life Saver tracker off with scissors before she went missing. Because of this 911 call to report V1 missing, an abundant number of resources were immediately dispatched to the area, including: Brevard County Sheriff's Office (BCSO) blood hounds (x3), BCSO air unit "Star", PBPd K9, 20 police officers, Palm Bay Fire Department; social media news about the child went out along with emergency notifications via phone messages to the citizens of Palm Bay. This detective responded as well and swore defendant to her statement. Defendant stated essentially that [REDACTED] defendant and [REDACTED] argued as [REDACTED] left in his vehicle at approximately 6:35pm according to a Ring Camera the defendant has. Defendant said that while she was throwing [REDACTED] stuff away in a garbage can, V1 must have run out of the house. Defendant said when she went back into the house, she noticed V1's Life Saver band had been cut off and she was missing. Defendant claimed to have an aggressive dog, she said police had searched her house except for [REDACTED] which is locked and defendant said she already looked there.

Because defendant repeatedly said that her dog was aggressive, she was able to enter the room alone to handle the dog, move the dog to another room and then lock the aggressive dog in another room while the house was searched. Defendant was asked to move the dog out [REDACTED] V1 was [REDACTED] she was covered in dust and debris. V1 stated that she ran off around the corner because she didn't [REDACTED] she came back in the house, cut her Project Life Saver off and hid under [REDACTED] and then moved [REDACTED] because she was "scared" of monsters. This statement is almost exactly what the defendant said to police when she called.

Defendant allowed officers to view the Ring Camera footage on her cell phone. Defendant has Ring Cameras [REDACTED] including in several bedrooms. In a video, time 7:08pm, you can hear the defendant on the phone with police stating she didn't know where [REDACTED] was. She was saying this a [REDACTED] in front of the defendant. At 7:11pm, defendant comes into the room V1 is hiding in and moves [REDACTED] to defendant [REDACTED] You can hear the defendant say to V1, "Don't worry you won't get in trouble". At 7:15pm, defendant walks police around the [REDACTED] she just moved V1 out of as they searched for V1.

This search had gone on for 3 hours.

Defendant agreed to speak to me Post Miranda and stated essentially the following: that she did lose V1 for a few minutes but then located her. She said she didn't tell police because she didn't know what to do. She said [REDACTED] wasn't there like he was supposed to be. I confronted her with the fact that I had seen the videos, and she was on the phone with 911 while looking [REDACTED] and telling dispatch she couldn't find her. Defendant said that V1 was probably going to run away so she just reported it.

Defendant intentionally called 911 and gave false information to police in a missing person's case that caused a significant police response. She lied in a sworn statement that she did not know where [REDACTED] was and watched [REDACTED] and police search for [REDACTED] for hours.

V1 [REDACTED] returned to the home and [REDACTED].
