Again, thankyou for your help!!!
Take the weekend to think about our partnership and what you guys want to do

We would like 10% if possible. Let me know what that will be. Also check out ring products. They have a bunch. Cameras only and door/window sensors. All cameras are visible and in. I see at night with no lights on.

Yes I'm interested in the ring for sure. 10% would be you investing 20k which you have already given me 11,700 (not including our interest agreement) I would put you on as a silent partner to the Corp and also give you log in information to the p.o.s. system so you can monitor our sales aswell as the month Bill's and cost of doing buisness. Doing this solo just isn't logical for me. I need help, but I think I can get rich off of this bar.

The way I see it. If we did that and the bar operated how it did when

The way I see it. If we did that and the bar operated how it did when first opened, you would have your 20k made back in just 10 months give or take. Then all profit after that. I have no intentions of buying you out either. In 6 years the liq lic will be paid off and I can take it elsewhere if I wanted.

I agree. The arrangement sounds great to me. We'll get the freezer and ring products and give you what's left to bank for the bills and sign Change. Westside has bad rep now and may need to change name if business goes down.

So she has opted to finish the months lease which is 8 days from now. So that works out good for me I don't have to worry about Feb rent and have a good head start Great! Any specs on the freezer?

I looked. Let's hold off for another damn week. I'm taking all this liquor home with me. Spent 1k on liquor for no reason this week

Ok. I'll have 8300 on Friday for the account. We can get what you need from that. Cathy may have a line on a commercial freezer.

Ok that would be great. Awesome man. And all of our biz chat is confidential. I have 90 days to switch over Fpl and the rest of the bills your lawyer read the closing documents?

Let's get the lic license clear. I can take a loan or pay cash. Get the keys ASAP and get this over

I remember saying that we would visit that conversation in a few months about liq lic. That would change our partnership to probably 5050 which is fine. This Fontaine thing makes no sense

Feb 21, 2019 at 9:51 PM

Man I just want to thankyou guys sincerely for being patient with me on this. This is legit the most stressful ordeal I have ever heard of. We will get through this shit!

I know. I will back you. I will show up and let them we are partners. I will make this happen and put fear into them if need be

I told Ray what we want to do about the liq lic. He said holy shit are you serious. Dianna telling me he had no business bringing Fontaine to a meeting. Your right. Screwballs

I haven't told one person. Idk if mandy knows but I'm not worried about her. May be a rough weekend for westside

She knows we have money invested thanks to Cathy. Don't worry about Mandy. May be. Let ray know. He knows we have the money. Game changer for him now.

Lol. I'm not going to specify it's you guys because dianna cant stand anyone in your group (I have no idea why) that includes mandy (who has made her thousands) like you say... screwballs. I think ray might have fallen asleep. I will call the attorney of the liq lic tm and deal directly with him. I've done this once before and dianna yelled at them.

Ok. Game over. We'll get this done!

Yes sir

Good question. Ask the lawyer.
