On October 27, 2023 11:10am, Randall Fine received a Subpoena for Deposition through substitute service of his wife, Wendy Fine, at their private residence (Exhibit 1). Mr. Fine was being deposed as a third-party witness to an ongoing public records lawsuit in Brevard County, Jennifer Jenkins vs. Brevard County School Board.

On November 1, 2023, General Counsel of the Florida House of Representatives, David Axelman, appearing as the attorney for Mr. Fine, filed a Notice of Legislative Continuance due to section 11.111 Florida Statutes (Exhibit 2).

On November 2, 2023, the deposition of Mr. Fine was rescheduled for November 29, 2023 at 1:30pm, in order to comply with section 11.111 Florida Statutes, the legislative calendar, subsequently filed with the court, and distributed to all relevant parties. (Exhibit 3)

Mr. Fine was mailed copies of the notice, to both his office and private residence, in which he handwrote "return to sender" on each as an attempt to refuse notice. Mr. Axelman attorney for Mr. Fine also received a copy of the notice. In response on November 13, 2023, Mr. Axelman stated his appearance was "limited to filing the notice of legislative continuance," believing it not a matter of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Fine supports the sentiment that the deposition is not related to official business, as evidenced by a recording of the sworn statement to BCSO case number 2023-00403545 on October 28, 2023. Mr. Fine filed a complaint with the BCSO, one day after an attempted service of subpoena at his House of Representatives Office in Palm Bay, FL, to alleged he was being targeted as the "only Jewish Republican of the Florida House," further explaining he hid behind his office desk from the server out of fear for his life. Mr. Fine states, "by the way nothing having to do with this would be official business, but yea they filed a subpoena and I think I have Alan Landman who is an attorney file a motion to say you know no go here."

On October 31, 2023, Mr. Fine drafted a letter to the Chief Judge using the official state seal letterhead, to allege improper service and harassment, threatening the license of Attorney Travis and the server, and asking for "swift disciplinary action" against them. Further, Mr. Fine states "demanding a State Representative provide a deposition with less than a week's notice seems unreasonable." (Exhibit 4 A&B)

Mr. Fine later reverts to his belief that the subpoena is unrelated to official business by seeking outside counsel to represent him in this deposition. It has been alleged that multiple attorneys refused to represent Mr. Fine in his attempt to avoid deposition. Eventually, Mr. Fine convinces Attorney Alan Landman, who required a retainer of $10,000.

On November 29, 2023 9:42am, a Limited Notice of Appearance was filed by Attorney Alan Landman for the purpose of Representing Randy Fine. (Exhibit 5) Attorney Landman subsequently filed an Emergency Motion for Protective Order in which it states, "Undersigned counsel was retained on 11/28/23 for the limited purpose of filing instant emergency motion and addressing any issues/hearing related hereto." (Exhibit 6)

Mr. Fine did not show for his deposition on November 29. Attorney Landman, knowing he was unavailable for the scheduled and served deposition before accepting the case, accepted it anyway. Attorney Landman continued to represent Mr. Fine through numerous email exchanges with Attorney Jessica Travis from November 29, 2023 to mid-December 2023, claiming attorney Landman was unavailable at every proposed date in an effort to force a scheduling conflict with section 11.111 Florida Statutes. A motion to show cause for Mr. Fine's absence from the deposition was filed and has yet to be heard by the court.

Mr. Fine is the Chair of political committee "Friends of Randy Fine". (Exhibit 7) The Statement of Organization of Friends of Randy Fine states the area, scope and jurisdiction of the committee as "state political committee to support or oppose candidates for statewide, multi-county, legislative, county and municipal office and other activities not prohibited by chapter 106 F.S." (Exhibit 8 A&B)

Friends of Randy Fine reported a Campaign Expenditure dated November 28, 2023 for $10,000 to Law Firm of Alan Landman, Melbourne, FL. (Exhibit 9)

On December 19, 2023 Mr. Fine, using campaign email and email signature with his official title, contacted Laura Moody at Brevard County Sheriff's Office further attempting to press criminal charges against the server and Attorney Travis. (Exhibit 10) He also uses his public office address as his campaign's mailing address in the email.

Mr. Fine used his position and office for personal benefit to avoid providing testimony under oath by contacting the court using state official letterhead, then later from his campaign, communicating directly with Chief Judge Crawford via phone about this false allegation, falsely, under oath misrepresenting facts about multiple services that took place on October 27, 2023 to BCSO, and utilizing $10,000 of campaign and committee funds to hire outside counsel.

I believe Mr. Fine has violated the following:

Sec. 112.31485, Fla. Stat. Prohibition on gifts involving political committees

Sec. 112.313(6), Fla. Stat. Misuse of Public Position

Article II, Section 8(h), Florida Constitution Abuse of Public Position

3. Section 11.111, Florida Statutes, requires that, upon notice by a legislator to a state court, any proceeding before that court in which a legislator is a party or witness “shall stand continued, without the continuance being charged against any party, during any session of the Legislature and for a period of time 15 days prior to any session of the Legislature and 15 days subsequent to the conclusion of any session of the Legislature, and during any period of required committee work and for a period of time 1 day prior and 1 day subsequent thereto,” when the legislator provides notice to the court. October 31, 2023

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to file a complaint regarding the behavior of Attorney Jessica Travis and her investigator, "John."

On Friday, October 26th, an unknown man came to my home and banged on the door repeatedly until it was opened. I was out of state at the time, and the man demanded that the individual who was at the house accept service of a document. She refused and he left a document taped to the door that purported to be a subpoena demanding my presence at a deposition five business days later, on November 3rd, involving a lawsuit to which I am not a party.

Yesterday, on Monday, October 30th, a man again came to my home and banged on the door repeatedly until it was opened. I was not at home at the time, and the man demanded that the individual at the house again accept service of a document. She again refused (it was a different person), and he again left a document taped to the door similar to the previous document.

Shortly thereafter, a man appeared at my office. Due to security threats as a result of the antisemitic activities taking place around our state, we have a sign out front stating our office does not accept walk-ins and appointments must be made by phone. The man did not call the office seeking entrance but began banging on the door and windows demanding entrance. Pursuant to our safety protocols, we took cover. The man continued, for at least 15 minutes, banging on the door as well as windows to my office. Even more threatening, he placed his cellphone against the windows theoretically attempting to obtain video through the glass door and windows.

Later that afternoon, we picked up a voicemail from Ms. Travis which I am transcribing here in full.

"This is attorney Jessica Travis. My investigator is attempting to serve a subpoena on Mr. Fine. We know he is present, and we have him on video ducking down behind his desk. My suggestion, other than doing a motion in this regard and making the video public in that respect, is that Mr. Fine simply goes to the door and accept subpoena. So, I wanted to let you know that my investigator is there his name is John, and this is Jessica Travis, or you can call contact me at my office at (321) 728-7280 or just walk out and get the subpoena from John."

To Whom It May Concern

I am filing this complaint because Ms. Travis' voicemail appears to be some kind of threat to release video that she believes is embarrassing in order to effectuate service, which seems highly unethical, if not blackmail or extortion. In addition, the threatening behavior of her investigator, who she has identified as "John," with banging on glass doors and windows repeatedly while attempting to film inside again seems highly inappropriate, if not illegal.

Beyond that, demanding a State Representative provide a deposition with less than a week's notice seems unreasonable. Lastly, Ms. Travis's efforts to flout Florida Statute 11.111, which makes me immune from any such deposition on Friday is a gross violation of her oath to uphold the law.

I hope you will take swift disciplinary action against Ms. Travis and "John." Please contact me further if I can provide any additional information. I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

Randy Fine

Ex. 10

Thank you for speaking with me. As you review the criminality of Mr. Aiani and Ms. Travis releasing the video of the attempted service to the media (including audio of my wife recorded without her consent), here is the affidavit upon which they claim I was served. Here is a link to the legal filing that includes Mr. Aiani's affidavit. It begins on page 15 and runs until page 19

chrome-extension://efaidnbmnnnibpcajpcgiclfindmkaj/https://vmatrix1.brevardclerk.us/beca/get_document.cfm?doc_num=17C27B4F-5056-B465-1FB1C88EE4701023

If this link doesn't work, it is docket #66 "Motion For Order to Show Cause" on the clerk's site in the case of Jenkins v. Susin.

Beyond the false affidavit (he did not complete substitute service in accordance with Florida statute), in his recordings both of Wendy and I, he recorded audio in addition to video without our consent.

Please call me at any time to discuss. My cell phone is below.
